OCTOBER 2022/VOLUME 23 - ISSUE 10

THE RABBI SPEAKS

RABBI BARRY BLOCK

Dear Friends:

On Friday night, September 9, we gathered for Membership Shabbat in large numbers—the largest in-person congregation for a Friday night since before the pandemic. The evening was meaningful and inspiring. We worshiped. We honored our new members. We welcomed prospective members. We enjoyed a buffet reception. People lingered and visited after Shabbat Dinner. Quite a few volunteers—cooks, musicians, organizers, and others—were involved in creating a successful evening.

In short, Membership Shabbat reflected Congregation B'nai Israel at its best. Moreover, as I explained to a new member: “Tonight, you saw our congregation in a way that was new for you. For long time members, though, that was a terrific community gathering that our congregation often enjoys.”

Pirkei Avot, Sayings of our Sages, teaches: “Do not separate yourself from your community.” Sadly, though, for over a year, from March 2020 to May 2021, a global pandemic prevented us from gathering in person for worship or study, and then we were again in that situation when the Delta and Omicron variants took over. The mitzvah—that is, religious obligation—to save lives took precedence over the mitzvah to gather in community.

Now, though, we have been gathering in person consistently since the spring. Even as we are grateful that Zoom enables us to include folks who are unable to attend in person, we do not anticipate returning to exclusively online worship and study.

Our Friday night attendance, including people on Zoom, has been as good or better than it was pre-pandemic. My goal, which I hope we all share, is that our in-person attendance—that is, our gathering in community—will return to our pre-pandemic levels, with the ability for people to attend from a distance as a bonus.

STANDING ON THEIR SHOULDERS AND KEVER AVOT MEMORIAL SERVICE AT OAKLAND JEWISH CEMETERY

OCTOBER 2 ~ 9:30 AM

Annual cemetery visit facilitated by Rabbi Barry Block
Written and produced by Meg Goldenberg Marion
Sunday, October 2, 9:30 am – 11:30am
at Oakland Jewish Cemetery

You won't want to miss this opportunity to meet Temple members from our past, as professional actors deftly bring them to life at Oakland Jewish Cemetery. This popular program will showcase and Shirley & Sam Strauss, both of blessed memory. The original plan was also to portray Rich Lewis z"l. That has been postponed to next year.

Afterwards, Rabbi Block will lead a brief memorial service, and you will have the opportunity to visit loved ones' gravesites, a High Holy Day tradition. Eileen Hamilton has planned additional activities in the cemetery for our Religious School students.

“Standing on Their Shoulders” will constitute Religious School for all grades, as well as their faculty and madrichim, on this Sunday. Religious School students and their parents should meet at Oakland Cemetery at 9:30 am. Adults, including Religious School parents, are most eagerly invited to join us at the cemetery. Remember to bring sunscreen, hat, and sunglasses. Water will be provided.

This program will be postponed or held on Zoom in the event of rain.

FROM THE PRESIDENT, ANNABELLE IMBER TUCK

Welcoming the New Year together!

Preparations for the High Holy Days have been in high gear at Congregation B'nai Israel! Our musicians are rehearsing, our Torah scrolls are now dressed in white silk beaded covers, Rabbi Block is writing sermons, the Temple building and grounds are buzzing with annual repair and spruce up activities, and our bakers are busy creating sweets for the Rosh Hashanah Gala reception after services on Sunday evening, September 25, 2022, and the Break-the-Fast following services on Yom Kippur. Many of our congregants will be participating in the High Holy Day services and serving as greeters, ushers, and security pass checkers. The surge of energy is palpable! We look forward to welcoming the New Year – 5783 -- together at Congregation B'nai Israel. The blowing of the Shofar beckons us to come together as a community. Dipping an apple slice into honey so we can celebrate the sweetness of life, of joy, and of love together.

At the same time, many of us approach this time with heavy hearts – grieving the loss of a loved one, failing health, financial difficulties, disappointments, and family discord. The intermediate Days of Awe leading up to Yom Kippur is a time of serious introspection, a time to consider the mistakes of the previous year, a time to repent, and a time to forgive and to be forgiven.

I have found that poetry helps me balance the simultaneous sweetness of life and the ache of a heavy heart. In contemplating how to express my thoughts and feelings as our community comes together for the High Holy Days – after a long period of social separation – I have chosen to share the following poem by Alden Solovy entitled The Season of Healing:

This is the season of healing:
Of healing our hearts and souls,
Of healing the moments we share with each other
And the moments we share with ourselves.

This is the season of memory:
Of remembering our parents and grandparents,
The love of generations,
The holiness of our ancestors.

This is the season of stillness,
The season of silence and quiet:
Of deep breaths,
Of open eyes,
Of compassion and consolation.

This is the season of healing:
The season of grief turning to wonder,
Of loss turning toward hope,
The season that binds this year to the next,
The season that heralds the redemption of spirit
And our return to God's Holy Word.

FROM EILEEN HAMILTON, DIRECTOR, ADMINISTRATION, EDUCATION & YOUTH ENGAGEMENT

I am so excited to try new things, especially in Jewish education and religious school. We tried a new thing last year – MID WEEK Hebrew. We saw our students soar in Hebrew reading fluency so quickly, and now we are going to offer it again to even more students this year. This will make all the difference for our B'nai Mitzvah tutors because our students will be reading and decoding when starting with their tutors on the Torah and Haftarah portions. We are consistently proud of all our students who study to become Bar or Bat Mitzvah and celebrate with them on their special day. The best part is that they are comfortable leading services from that time on...so impressive.

Our second and maybe biggest new thing this year is having morning and evening classes for religious school. It has always been customary to have religious school on Sunday mornings. This has been going on since the start of time it seems. Learning is all the time however, 24/7, in real life, and all around us. This year, we will take advantage of learning and celebrating in real time when the opportunity arises. Our first evening session for religious school will be on October 9 for Sukkot. We will have learning stations, activities, prayers and blessings, and the usual community of religious school PLUS+. Parents will be with us, and they too will have parallel learning and be able to celebrate the holiday with their kids. The possibilities are endless.

We will continue in our evening studies through Sukkot, and into Simchat Torah for Consecration of our new students, and those who are planning to become Bar/Bat Mitzvah in the next calendar year. We also will honor our 3rd graders by presenting them with their own Siddur – one they will use and make their own in preparation for a future Bar/Bat Mitzvah.

Perhaps the schedule might get a few mixed up at first. We can help with that. The benefits of being at Temple for some morning learning, and real time holiday observance, and even more community experiences will enrich all of us so much. Stay tuned for where and when to be. You will love the change because you will love the results.

Religious school dates for October: October 2 – 9:30 am at Oakland Jewish Cemetery
October 9 – 5:00 pm at the Temple in the Amphitheater for Potluck dinner and Sukkot activities and decorating

October 16 – 5:00 pm at Temple for dinner followed by Simchat Torah Services, Consecration, Yad and Siddur Ceremony

October 23 – 9:00 am at Temple

October 30 – 9:00 am at Temple

LAFTY MEETING AND EVENTS:

October 9 – LAFTY leads our Sukkah decorating

Arrive at 4 pm for short meeting and then to help set up for a fun family evening of learning and decorating. LaFTY will lead others in an illuminating project for the holiday of Sukkot.

Stay tuned for our next event to see 13: The Musical!

SHIRA KLINE COMES TO B'NAI ISRAEL TO ROCK IT OUT FOR SIMCHAT TORAH

Shira Kline Will Be Our Guest Artist-in-Residence for Atzeret-Simchat Torah

Until we met Shira Kline, Congregation B'nai Israel never knew how much fun we could have on Zoom! Now, after extraordinary, inspiring, meaningful, and joyful experiences online in 5781 and 5782, 2020 and 2021, Shira will join us in person for Atzeret-Simchat Torah Eve 5783, October 16, beginning with a holiday supper at 5pm.

Shira Kline (she/her) is a performance and ritual artist, recognized as a revolutionary educator and named one of the new re-engineers of Jewish life today. Co-founder and Spiritual Leader of Lab/Shul, Shira works in the field of sacred play. She is known in the sanctuary as a spiritual adventurer and to the under-five set as colorful kiddie-rocker ShirLaLa. Shira tours extensively locally and globally with a vibrant invitation to connect, for a new and realized conscious world. At home in Brooklyn, unceded Lenape lands, she lives to dance, cook, and play with her beloved and their daughter.

Shira's visit to Congregation B'nai Israel is once again made possible by a generous grant from the Bauman Music Fund.

Sunday, October 16 – THIS IS OUR RELIGIOUS SCHOOL SESSION FOR THE DAY.

No morning classes, but an evening in real time celebration of the holiday together as a community.

Light Dinner at 5 pm for all.

5:45 pm – Simchat Torah, Consecration, Siddur and Yad Ceremony Service

We honor our new students in religious school in grades Kindergarten, First & Second grade, those receiving their personalized Siddur for Hebrew studies, and one student receiving a yad in preparing for Bar Mitzvah.

Welcome to our newest religious school students:

Mollie Axelroth
Harriet Baker

WELCOME SUNNY BAKER—NEW LAFTY ADVISOR!

Hello all, I am thrilled to join the B'nai Israel community and join LaFTY as advisor. I grew up in St. Louis, MO and recently moved to Little Rock from Oxford, Mississippi. My husband and I met at Hendrix College, and I have wanted to move back to Arkansas since! My day job is Senior Director of Programs and Policy for the National Farm to School Network - we support locally grown food in school cafeterias, school gardens, and all the state and federal policy to make it happen. I have spent my career leading school food reform and co-creating a culture of regionally-based eating. I was most recently co-director of the Mississippi Farm to School Network, and in 2019, I was selected to be a W.K. Kellogg Community Leadership Fellow. My work was featured at TedXManhattan. My ancestry is Ashkenazi, and I have recently taken a deep dive exploring my family's Ukrainian, Yiddish roots. I am mama to Harriet Ruth (5) and Alma Pearl (2), a backyard chicken enthusiast, and yoga teacher who is always looking for a good swimming river.

The purpose of the Congregation B'nai Israel Legacy Society is to secure the future of our Reform Jewish congregation. Legacy gifts are deferred gifts that will benefit Temple B'nai Israel by sustaining our congregation for future generations. No gift is too small and every gift is a testament to your Jewish heritage.

Legacy gifts might include:

- A bequest in your will
- A portion or all of an existing life insurance policy
- A portion or all of an IRA or 401k
- A portion or all of an annuity
- A portion or all of a charitable trust
- Or some other deferred commitment

Legacy donors become members of the Congregation B'nai Israel Legacy Society. If you would like more information on making a legacy gift, please leave your name with the Temple office (225-9700) and a volunteer will contact you.
